

Conference Program

NEEDS₃

3rd Northern European conference on Emergency and Disaster Studies

21-23 March 2018

NEEDS₃ VU

Wednesday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
12:00 - 13:00	Registration (all day)
13:00 - 13:15	Opening session
13:30 - 14:00	Keynote Tricia Wachtendorf
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 17:00	1	15. Memory And Disasters	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods	7. Aidnography: The Everyday Practices Of Humanitarian Assistance	2. Knowledge Practices Participation And Accountability In Disaster Governance
17:00 - 19:00	Drinks
Thursday	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30	Opening session
09:30 - 10:30	Keynote Arjen Boin
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:30	2	15. Memory And Disasters	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods	7. Aidnography: The Everyday Practices Of Humanitarian Assistance	16. An Integrated Approach To Disaster Response Management
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 15:00	3		9. Disaster And The Politics Of Sympathy	5. International Disaster Law	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 - 17:00	4	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods (Special Penary)	18. Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid	5. International Disaster Law	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience
17:00 - 17:15	Closing session
18:45 - 22:30	Conference Dinner
Friday	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30	Opening Session
09:30 - 10:30	Keynote Nama Raj Budhathok
10:30 - 10:45	Short Coffee Break
10:45 - 11:30	5	Meet the editors!	18. Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid	5. International Disaster Law	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience
11:30 - 11:45	Short Coffee Break
11:45 - 12:30	6	NEEDS Conversation: an auto-biography of disaster researchers	18. Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid		17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience
12:30 - 13:00	Closing session
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 17:00	PhD Workshop

Wednesday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
12:00 - 13:00	Registration (all day)
13:00 - 13:15
13:30 - 14:00
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 17:00		1 12. Dealing With And Preparing For Floods	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies	8. The Grey Zone: Civil-Military Coordination and Cooperation	4. Disaster Response Arenas In Fragile Urban Settings
17:00 - 18:30	Drinks
Thursday	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30
09:30 - 10:30
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:30		2 12. Dealing With And Preparing For Floods	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies	2. Knowledge Practices and Accountability In Disaster Governance	Humanitarian Serious Game Demonstration
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 15:00		3 6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies	10. Disasters From Above: When Water And Power Kill	Humanitarian Serious Game Demonstration
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 - 17:00		4 6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management	19. Risk Management & Governance	20. Open Panel
17:00 - 17:15
18:45 - 22:30	Conference Dinner
Friday	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30
09:30 - 10:30
10:30 - 10:45	Short Coffee Break
10:45 - 11:30		5 6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management	3. The European Refugee And Migrant Crisis
11:30 - 11:45	Short Coffee Break
11:45 - 12:30		6 6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management	3. The European Refugee And Migrant Crisis
12:30 - 13:00
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch

Wednesday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
12:00 - 13:00	Registration (all day)
13:00 - 13:15		Opening session
13:30 - 14:00		Keynote Tricia Wachtendorf
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 17:00		1	15. Memory And Disasters	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods	7. Aidnography: The Everyday Practices Of Humanitarian Assistance	2. Knowledge Practices Participation And Accountability In Disaster Governance
			Kristoffer Albris Chronologies of calamity: memory, futurity and temporality in contemporary disaster research	Cordula Dittmer & Daniel Lorenz (Post)colonial power relations in researching disasters Discussants: Jennifer Trivedi & Rachel Slotter	Faith Cowling The ethnographer on mission: reflections on ethnographic research with humanitarian organisations in the field Discussant: Talita Cetinoglu	Milan Mukhia & Salina Shakya Experience of Cordaid and Partnership in Transformation (PATRA) in Nepal after Mega Earthquake 2015 Discussant: Kenny Meesters
			Michael Hutt Whose heritage? Public history, public memory, and the collapse of Nepal's Dharahara Tower	Jennifer Trivedi & Rachel Slotter Ethical disaster research using qualitative methods: how do we recognize small communities who feel abandoned? Discussants: Cordula Dittmer & Daniel Lorenz	Talita Cetinoglu Programming humanitarian principles into action Discussant: Faith Cowling	Kenny Meesters Participation & accountability in disaster governance Discussant: Milan Mukhia
			Yogesh Raj Writing disasters for posterity	Valerie Marlowe Disaster research, post-disaster memory, and the right to be forgotten Discussant: Eula Bianca Villar	Mary Nelan Paved with good intentions: a social construction approach to alignment in disaster donations Discussant: Lejla Sunagic	Marije Visscher Participatory knowledge management in humanitarian settings: toward a real revolution? Discussant: Salina Shakya
			Elyse Zavar & Ronald Schumann A typology of commemoration in disaster recovery	Eula Bianca Villar Telling the stories of organizations in disaster environments: methodological considerations Discussant: Valerie Marlowe	Lejla Sunagic Gender-based violence programs in the Syrian crisis in the face of structural impediments of the refugee existence Discussant: Mary Nelan	Kseniia Puzyreva Flood history and community engagement in flood risk management in the UK: a clash of paradigms Discussant: Nimesh Dhungana
17:00 - 19:00	Drinks (Foyer)

Wednesday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
12:00 - 13:00	Registration (all day)
13:00 - 13:15
13:30 - 14:00
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 17:00		12. Dealing With And Preparing For Floods	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies	8. The Grey Zone: Civil-Military Coordination And Cooperation In Disaster Management	4. Disaster Response Arenas In Fragile Urban Settings
		Maren Egedorf The paradox of addressing recurent floods as disasters Discussant: Marco Krüger	Naim Kapucu Collaborative governance and interorganizational coordination in emergency management Discussant: Sanne Lehmann	Evelien Belfroid An integrated model for outbreak preparedness and response: learning for the future Discussant: Charlotte Hammer	Per Læg Reid The challenge of administrative capacity and transboundary coordination Discussant: Lillian Stene	Raimond Duijsens Humanitarian challenges of urbanisation in Manila: the position of the Philippine Red Cross in a changing disaster and aid landscape
		Sara Bonati Social struggles and vulnerability in the aftermath of Genoa floods Discussant: Laurits Nielsen	Sanne Lehmann Applying social network theory to explain business-humanitarian partnerships in humanitarian emergency response Discussant: Evie Petridou	Liban Holm & Ann Bojsen Apprehending the overall didactic mechanisms in safety and security training Discussant: Evelien Belfroid	Jori Kalkman & Jeroen Wolbers The politics of sensemaking: patrolling the border during the European migration crisis Discussant: Per Læg Reid	Matias Barberis Governing flood resilience in marginal areas: lessons or challenges?
		Marco Krüger Unwanted resilience: between control and cooperation in flood management Discussant: Maren Egedorf	Jörgen Sparf Collaborative arrangements in routine emergency management: an organizational perspective Discussant: Pär Olausson	Nils Reinholdt Predisaster training of professionals running information and support center after a disaster - ready, willing and able helpers Discussant: Evelien Belfroid	Lillian Stene Rational beliefs, inconsistent practices Discussant: Jori Kalkmann	Davide Olori & Marta Menghi Heterogeneous disruptions. Emergency management and post-disaster responses to the Central Italy earthquake (2016-2017)
		Laurits Nielsen Post-spontaneous volunteerism Discussant: Sara Bonati	Evangelia Petridou Collaborative arrangements in routine emergency management: a network perspective Discussant: Naim Kapucu	Charlotte Hammer (Re-)Conceptualising vulnerability as a part of risk in global health emergency response: updating the pressure and release model for global health emergencies Discussant: Ann Bojsen	Tara Zapp-Palecny Partners in aid: rethinking the divide between civil and military disaster relief Discussant: Rasmus Dahlberg	Ronan McDermott The Influence of tenure security on welfare outcomes in urban informal settlements: evidence from Colombia, Kenya and Indonesia
					Rasmus Dahlberg Dual purpose Discussant: Tara Zapp-Palecny
17:00 - 19:00	Drinks (Foyer)

Thursday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
8:00 - 09:15	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30		Opening session
09:30 - 10:30		Keynote Arjen Boin
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:30		2	15. Memory And Disasters	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods	7. Aidnography: The Everyday Practices Of Humanitarian Assistance
			Vikas Lakhani Traversing disasters: remembering and forgetting the Gujarat Earthquake	Oluwadunsin Ajulo Systems thinking and its application in disaster studies Discussant: Cynthia Rivas	Myfanwy James A Congolese Space of Aid: the paradoxical importance of the politicised personal in North Kivu Discussant: Darryl Stellmach
			Stefanie Lotter Moving images: commemorative tattoo art in the aftermath of the Nepal Earthquakes of 2015	Cynthia Rivas The role of volunteer geographic information in disaster management Discussants: Lauren Clay, Alex Greer & James Kendra	Darryl Stellmach Care in dying: anthropology in and of a humanitarian hospital in wartime Discussant: Myfanwy James
			Christopher Tharp Memory and melancholia in America: novels working through the trauma of 9/11	Lauren Clay, Alex Greer & James Kendra Timeless disaster studies: disaster research in Xenia, Ohio Discussants: Oluwadunsin Ajulo, Jason Von-Meding & Patrick Tang	Philipp Darkow Coordination saves lives: the emergence of coordination practices in unstructured terrain Discussant: Darina Pellowaska
			Tristian Wu Disaster memory recollection after the 2013 Colorado flood		Darina Pellowaska Towards conceptualizing humanitarian aid diversion by belligerent groups – a social network approach Discussant: Philipp Darkow
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
			16. An Integrated Approach To Disaster Response Management
			Christian Uhr When on-site management meets strategic directions. Two perspectives on the police response to the terrorist attack in Stockholm on the 7th of April 2017		Nadia Noori ICT role in supporting humanitarian aid missions in hostile environments: the case of iTRACK project
					Rianne Gouman Collective sensemaking in emergency response: lessons learned in the context of information systems

Thursday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
8:00 - 09:15	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30
09:30 - 10:30
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 12:30		12. Dealing With And Preparing For Floods Nina Baron Challenges and opportunities connected to flood protection in nonurban communities in Denmark Discussant: Asya Karaseva Asya Karaseva Unmaking flood: expectations for state emergency intervention in the North-Eastern Russia Discussant: Kees Boersma Tanja Hendricks & Kees Boersma Challenging collaborations: the functioning of the UN-OCHA cluster system in the aftermath of the 2015 Malawi floods Discussant: Nina Baron	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management Claudia Berchtold Success and failure factors in EU transboundary crisis management: a review Discussant: Robert Larrunia Robert Larrunia Bumping into the neighbor: collaboration between Dutch civil society and state organizations in refugee (crisis) governance Discussant: Dominik Semet Dominik Semet Organizations and crisis in transition – organizational perspectives on increasing collaborative requirements of disaster management Discussant: Claudia Berchtold	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies Loris Gaio Emergency management professionals facing the unexpected: some empirical evidence Discussant: Marco Krüger Marco Krüger Preparedness in the face of the unknown: why capabilities matter Discussant: Mikael Linnell Mikael Linnell Enhancing preparedness through the haptic sense: experiential learning and the limits of imagination Discussant: Loris Gaio	2. Knowledge Practices Participation And Accountability In Disaster Governance Elise Haak Bringing governance to the immature humanitarian data ecosystem to enable data-driven decision-making Discussant: Nimesh Dhungana Nimesh Dhungana Building voice, brokering redress? The contribution and context of community-based social accountability in post-earthquake Nepal Discussant: Dorothea Hilhorst Dorothea Hilhorst Changing perspectives on accountability and participation in humanitarian aid Discussant: Elise Haak	Humanitarian serious game demonstration Plaitra is a serious game focusing on the humanitarian aid delivery process in a conflict environment. Players can experience the intra- and inter-organizational cooperation and coordination among aid organizations, how technologies can help improve the operational performance and how to make strategic decisions on technology investment and development. You are very welcome to try the game at our demonstration session.
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch

Thursday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
13:30 - 15:00		3	9. Disaster And The Politics Of Sympathy Susanna Hoffman Disasters and the shadow side of sympathy: an overview Discussant: Kristoffer Albris	5. International Disaster Law Marlies Hesselman & Dug Cubie Coordination, coherence and accountability: the need for a UN special rapporteur on human rights and disasters Discussant: Kristian Laut	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience Katherine Stroebe Resilience in the face of chronic disaster: how man-made earthquakes threaten individual and community level resilience Discussant: Linda Kvarnlöf
			Emmanuel Raju Political cycles: what does it mean for disasters? Discussant: Susanna Hoffman	Christy Schucksmith The need for a primary legal right to humanitarian assistance in situations of disaster Discussant: Kristian Laut	Rosanne Anholt Unpacking the concept of resilience: contemporary risks and crises, governance practices and the resilient subject Discussant: Oluwadunsin Ajulo
			Christie Lam Is community participation and traditionalism necessary good practice for post-disaster recovery? A critique from the vantage point of anthropology Discussant: Emmanuel Raju		Oluwadunsin Ajulo Resilience as ability to change: the disparity between social sciences and engineering Discussant: Rosanne Anholt
			Kristoffer Albris Emergency affect and political opportunism following the 2013 floods in Eastern Germany Discussant: Christie Lam		Sissel Jore Resilience, security and the politics of insecurity Discussant: Laura Petersen
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee Break

Thursday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
13:30 - 15:00		6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination Christine Carius More than just a crowd: a case study of spontaneous volunteers, professional response and coordinated action Discussant: Menno van Duin	14. Collaborative Crisis Governance And Management Jonas Landgren Rapid information sharing among operators: a study of an information infrastructure in multi-actor emergency response work Discussant: Katrina Petersen	13. Preparedness 2.0: A Learning Approach To New Emergencies Doret de Rooij & Evelien Belfroid What to do in case of a threat? Preparing healthcare institutions during threats of viral hemorrhagic fevers or future emerging infections Discussant: Lauren Clay	10. Disasters From Above: When Water And Power Kill Trudi Buck & Claudia Merli Long term management of the dead and the 'virtual' dead following the Vajont dam disaster of 1963 Discussant: Paolo Forlin	Humanitarian serious game demonstration Plaitra is a serious game focusing on the humanitarian aid delivery process in a conflict environment. Players can experience the intra- and inter-organizational cooperation and coordination among aid organizations, how technologies can help improve the operational performance and how to make strategic decisions on technology investment and development.
		Nina Anderson Prevention strategies for emerging uncertainties Discussant: Willem Treurniet	Erna Danielsson & Pär Olausson Planning for "Styrel" Discussant: Jonas Landgren	Lauren Clay Social support: a new strategy for disaster preparedness Discussant: Maria Frigotto	Paolo Forlin Investigating the materiality of memories, identities and narratives of the 1963 Vajont disaster Discussant: Trudi Buck	You are very welcome to try the game at our demonstration session.
		Ira Helsloot Centralization in crisis and disaster management Discussant: Patrick Kenis		Maria Frigotto & Loris Gaio A tool for studying and developing Preparedness 2.0 Discussant: Nils Reinholdt	Michele Fontefrancesco Patterns of reconstruction: socio-economic development and the memory of the disaster in the Vajont tsunami aftermath Discussant: Jeremy Schmidt
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee Break				Jeremy Schmidt A geotechnical disaster configured from above: the role of local knowledge in making emergency oil cleanups into manageable events Discussant: Michele Fontefrancesco

Thursday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
15:30 - 17:00		4	1. Doing Disaster Research Well: Critical Reflections On The Concepts And Methods (Special Plenary Session) James Kendra Ethical considerations for disaster research	18. The Real Working Of Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid Dorothea Hilhorst Humanitarian aid in different types of crisis	5. International Disaster Law Maja Kielberg Gunung Agung eruption. Legal framework for managing safety versus commercial interests Discussant: Dug Cubie	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience Laura Petersen Who cares what it means? Practical reasons for using the word resilience with critical infrastructure operators Discussant: Sissel Jore
			Florian Roth & Tim Prior Adaptation in Disaster Risk Management and the Role of Science: An International Survey of Virtual Operation Support Teams	Erin Kuijpers Negotiating disaster response in conflict-affected Colombia: a case study of the Mocoa floods	Kristian Lautu & Julius Weitzdoerfer Fukushima and the law: lessons for international disaster law Discussant: Dug Cubie	Christie Lam & Rob Kuipers Resilience and disaster governance: some insights from the 2015 Nepal Earthquake Discussant: Ashley Ross
			Jeremy Shusterman Mad method or method of madness: exploring tacit knowledge and oral histories as a source for evidence and research on (and in) emergencies	Samantha Melis The politics of localization in Sierra Leone: a localized disaster governed in a global arena	Silvia Venier Exploring the evolving contours of the right to information in disaster situations Discussant: Dug Cubie	Ove Njå Crisis management and the issue of resilience in a system theoretic perspective Discussant: Riana Steen
			Isabelle Desportes Promises and pitfalls: social navigation and localization strategies in response to cyclone Komen in 2015 pre-election Myanmar
			Closing session
17:00 - 17:15
18:45 - 22:30	Conference Dinner

Thursday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
15:30 - 17:00		6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination Marleen Kraaij, Joerg Raab & Patrick Kenis Improving outbreak management through network analysis Discussant: Michel Dückers	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management Clay Lauren Improving community health from the fringes: the critical role of social institutions Discussants: Roine Johansson, Erna Danielsson & Kerstin Eriksson	19. Risk Management & Governance Alex Greer & Tristian Wu A serendipitous, quasi-natural experiment: earthquake risk perceptions and hazard adjustments among college students Discussant: Theo Kerckhoffs	20. Open Panel Christian Webersik Reinterpreting the role of extreme weather in conflict and humanitarian crisis Discussant: Aidan Seale-Feldman
		Jurriaan Jacobs & Michel Dückers Challenges in interprofessional collaboration within the post-disaster psychosocial support network in the Netherlands: preliminary results of a network analysis Discussant: Menno van Duin	Olof Oscarsson Boundary work in the case of an emergency: the encounter between emergency responders and an affected organization Discussant: Clay Lauren	Theo Kerckhoffs Mapping societal risks in Europe: an overview of five national risk assessments Discussant: Christine Prokopf	Aidan Seale-Feldman Humanitarianism as development: building Nepal's mental health system in times of crisis Discussant: Praveen Maghelal
		Olivier Rubin Expert-led securitization: the Danish and Swedish response to the 2009 Flu Pandemic Discussant: Marleen Kraaij	Angelo Imperiale What's wrong with the command and control approach in post-disaster operations: a chronicle of the 2009 La'Aquila earthquake disaster Discussant: Olaf Oscarsson	Christine Prokopf Tomorrow's disaster: prevention vs. reaction in democratic societies Discussant: Alex Greer & Tristian Wu	Praveen Maghelal Why evacuate when they do? Household behavior pre- and post-watch and warning announcements during hurricane events Discussant: Christian Webersik
17:00 - 17:15
18:45 - 22:30	Conference Dinner

Friday	Foyer	Theatre	Room 6.6	Room 6.5	Room 6.4
08:00 - 09:00	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30		Opening Session
09:30 - 10:30		Keynote Nama Raj Budhathoki
10:30 - 10:45	Short Coffee Break
10:45 - 11:30		5 Meet the editors! Ira Helsloot Journal of Contingencies and Crisis Management Sanneke Kuipers Risk, Hazards & Crisis in Public Policy Tristan Wu International Journal of Mass Emergencies and Disasters	18. The Real Working Of Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid Larissa Fast Cross-community networks and protection in conflict: actors, values, systems, and implications	5. International Disaster Law (closed session)	17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience Riana Steen Toward a resilient flood risk management: a case study of Synne flood in Norway Discussant: Ove Njå
11:30 - 11:45	Short Coffee Break
11:45 - 12:30		6 NEEDS Conversation: an autobiography of disaster researchers Arjen Boin Tricia Wachtendorf Nama Raj Budhathoki Susanna Hoffman	18. The Real Working Of Localization And The Co-Governance Of Humanitarian Aid Roanne van Voorst Real localization: factors that make NGO lobbying effective		17. A Critical View On The Term Resilience Ashley Ross & Lauren Clay The forgotten communities of Hurricane Harvey: filling gaps in the conceptualization of disaster resilience Discussant: Christie Lam
12:30 - 13:00		Closing session
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 17:00			PhD Workshop

Friday	Foyer	Room 6.3	Room 8.1	Room 8.2	Room 5.1	Room 6.1
08:00 - 09:00	Registration (all day)
09:15 - 09:30
09:30 - 10:30
10:30 - 10:45	Short Coffee Break
10:45 - 11:30		6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination Tove Frykmer & Christian Uhr What's the problem? An empirical study on how professionals express problems during emergency and disaster response Discussant: Willem Treurniet	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management Roine Johansson, Erna Danielsson & Kerstin Eriksson Emergence and volunteerism in disaster Discussant: Angelo Imperiale	3. Emergency and Humanitarian Organizations In The European Refugee And Migrant Crisis Ludovico Gammarelli Applying the European Commission's humanitarian expertise to respond to needs inside Europe Discussant: Florian Roth
11:30 - 11:45	Short Coffee Break
11:45 - 12:30		6. Transboundary Emergency Response Coordination Hans Esser Decision making during disaster management Discussant: Michel Dückers	11. On The Fringes Of Crisis Management Veronica Strandh Volunteerism in Swedish crisis management: motivations and trends Discussants: Linda Kvarnlöf & Erika Wall	3. Emergency and Humanitarian Organizations In The European Refugee And Migrant Crisis Florian Roth Understanding local crisis management in complex organisational settings. The case of the migration crisis in Germany 2015/16 Discussant: Arjen Schmidt Arjen Schmidt Dilemmas in crisis governance. The case of the refugee crisis Discussant: Ludovico Gammarelli
12:30 - 13:00
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 17:00						